Headteacher's message:

This week the children enjoyed an afternoon performance of 'The Selfish Giant' by the travelling company 'Image Musical Theatre'.

Year 5 said goodbye to associate Teacher Emily Burgess today. Emily has proved to be an exceptional teacher and is now moving on to teach a class of her own. She has made a real effort to get to know Y5 and gave each child a farewell gift of a Michael Morpurgo Book.

Celebrating Children aiming high!

Congratulations to this week's certificate winners.

Thank you for supporting our PTA

FOH would like to share how some of their fundraising has been spent. Thank you to all families who continue to support us in providing our children the range of opportunities and experiences we manage to provide with your help.

Cora triumphs in London and smashes her charity target!

Massive congratulations to Cora Kendrick who completed the London Marathon on Sunday with a superb time of 03:43:19. Despite hoping for sub 03:30, Cora soldiered on through thigh pain at 14 miles just about avoiding cramp. Her pace was going well for a sub 03:30 until about the last 4 miles which is a fantastic achievement.

Cora has already entered the ballot for next year's marathon and should be proud of her effort in not only achieving an incredible time, but also raising £3625 for the Hospice of the Good Shepherd, who looked cared for her dad.

Ella (Y5) and Freddy (Y7) should be very proud of their mum—Well done Cora!

Charlie and Toby rewarded for their commitment

Both Charlie (Y6) and Toby (Y4) attended their athletics awards night on Saturday. They were both awarded with a certificate and medal for their hard work and commitment to the club and attending competitions last season. They both love athletics and are ready for their first outdoor competition this Saturday.

Good luck on Saturday boys!

Rufus and Ed (Y6)

Well done to Rufus and Ed (Y6) who took part in a last Sunday's Cheshire Rugby Union Mini Festival.

Please do let us know when your children have been aiming high in out of school activities for us to celebrate.

Dutton dancers perfect performance!

Great to hear that Jemima (Y1) was in a show called Midnight Museum last weekend at The Grange Theatre in Hartford with the Janis Anderson School of Dance. Jemima did 4 shows over the weekend! She was a dinosaur with her ballet class and she sang her socks off with her musical theatre group. Her little sister, Verity, was a ballet dancing flamingo and mum tap danced to Anything Goes and Jai Ho! Keep dancing!
